'En plein air' Workshop with Leo Robba

Leo Robba is a writer, curator and artist based in the Blue Mountains. He has had many solo exhibitions in Australia and been a part of many group exhibitions both locally and internationally. Leo is currently undertaking a PhD at the Australian National University in Canberra on the topic of "A Changing View: Environment and the Contested Space in Australian Landscape Painting."

Leo was one of 16 artists who participated in the 'Your Friend the Enemy' Gallipoli visit in early 2014, organised by King Street Gallery, Sydney. On his visit Leo completed a series of en plein air sketches in pencil and watercolour. Upon his return Leo has transformed these studies into miniature oil paintings in small tobacco tins dating from WW1.

Robba's en plein air drawings will be on display at goulburn.art REGIONAL GALLERY for 'A Salute: Aussie soldier from 1915 meets Young Turk in 2015' 13 March– 2 May.
