GOULBURN REGIONAL ART GALLERY TO LAUNCH MAJOR PERMANENT COLLECTION EXHIBITION 'COLLECTION IN FOCUS'.

The Goulburn Regional Art Gallery will open the new major exhibition Collection in focus Friday 5 July 2024 at 6pm.

The exhibition will be opened by the Gallery's inaugural Director, Jennifer Lamb OAM.

With over 100 works of art on display, Collection in focus celebrates over 40 years of Goulburn Regional Art Gallery's permanent collection. The works on display span paintings, prints, sculptures, textiles, photographs and audio-visual works that tell insightful stories about the region, the Gallery and artists over time. Since the Gallery's conception in 1982, it has been dedicated to supporting living artists, presenting timely and resonant works of art and mounting exhibitions of exemplary contemporary artists. Featuring works made between 1900 and now, Collection in focus honours the Gallery's history, highlights the present focus and looks towards an ambitious and bright future.

"Collection in focus is a joyous celebration of art, illuminating connections between artists across time and place. This important exhibition honours the Gallery's over 40 year history of supporting artists and developing compelling exhibitions. This exhibition allows the public to get up close and personal with incredible treasures from our collection, with firm favourites sitting alongside lesser-known gems. Featuring a diverse range of artists and artforms, this is one not to miss!" – Yvette Dal Pozzo, Director, Goulburn Regional Art Gallery.
