

EDITORIAL ANNOUNCEMENTFor immediate release*GOULBURN REGIONAL ART GALLERY TO TAKE PART IN INAUGURAL AUSARTS DAY THIS THURSDAY 23 OCTOBER

Goulburn Regional Art Gallery is thrilled to be participating in the inaugural AusArts Day, taking place this Thursday 23 October. This new national day of giving to the arts, coordinated by Creative Australia, aims to raise awareness and support for the arts across the country.

Community support for the Gallery on this day will go directly towards strengthening its commitment to artists and audiences alike. Donations will help to maintain a free, safe and welcoming Gallery space where people of all ages can engage with inspiring exhibitions, creative programs and vital arts education opportunities.

For over 40 years, Goulburn Regional Art Gallery has been a cornerstone of the region's cultural landscape. Through the commissioning of artworks, the presentation of premier exhibitions and the delivery of engagement programs, the Gallery continues to champion creativity and support artists at every stage of their careers.

By donating on AusArts Day, supporters are contributing to the Gallery's future. Every dollar helps ensure continued access to the arts for the Goulburn community and beyond.

To make a donation, visit www.goulburnregionalartgallery.com.au/donate or donate in person at the Gallery using cash or card. All donations over $2 are tax deductible.

To learn more about how your contribution will make a difference, visit the Gallery's website to learn more.

Help spread the word, support your local arts institution, and celebrate AusArts Day with us this Thursday 23 October.
